Ku-Klux Outrages.

In the Senate of the United States, on the 18th March, Hon. John Sherman, of Ohio, made a powerful speech on the Ku-Klux question. We make considerable extracts:

Now, Mr. President, that these armed bands do exist in certain States is not denied. Senators seem in the outset to be anxious to disclaim that they exist in their own communities. I will first deal with the case of North Carolina, where we are fortified by proof that cannot be gainsaid, by an examination made by seven of the most intelligent members of this body, among whom were two members of the minority of this body. Before that committee, judges, lawyers, clerks, officers, and private citizens of every grade and condition of society were examined, and their sworn testimony is given in the report. And who now, in the face of this testimony, will deny that there are organized bands of lawless and desperate men, composed mainly of soldiers of the rebel army, in disguise, working with terror and violence, with murder, whipping, and scourging, and spreading terror over large parts of the State of North Carolina, sometimes embracing whole counties, and whose proceedings are set forth in the report with an aptitude of minutiæ and detail that is perfectly startling?

Sir, the witnesses show that many of the young men who were arrayed in the confederate army joined this military organization, with all the benefit of the discipline they had gained while in armed hostility to the Government of the United States. They are there in violation of the very liberal terms granted them by General Grant, and in violation of the treaty of capitulation under which they surrendered themselves as prisoners of war. They are armed with the very weapons they used against our own soldiers, and arms have flowed freely into North Carolina since the war was over, arms of the best character. They are disciplined and organized, according to the testimony of these high officers, in almost every county of North Carolina, but in most of the counties, perhaps in a large majority of the counties, they have committed no outrages; but there they lie quiet, organized, ready at a moment's notice to spring to arms. In several of the counties of that State, as I will show you by the testimony of these witnesses, they have brought about a condition of affairs that is revolting to every instinct of humanity.

Mr. President, we have here in this document laid before us, the great body of which I have read—all certainly that is referred to in either the majority or minority report—the oath of these lawless bands, the purpose of their organization, and their work thus far. Senators who have any curiosity to see that oath will find it on the fourteenth page of this report, and that shows the secret character of the organization:

"You solemnly swear in the presence of Almighty God that you will never reveal the name of the person who initiated you, and that you will never reveal what is now about to come to your knowledge; and that you are not now a member of the Red String Order, Union League, Heroes of America, Grand Army of the Republic, or any other organization whose aim and intention is to destroy the rights of the South, or of the States, or of the people, or to elevate the negro to a political equality with yourself; and that you are opposed to all such principles. So help you God!

"You further swear before Almighty God that you will be true to the principles of this brotherhood and the members thereof; and that you will never reveal the secrets, orders, acts, or edicts; and that you will never make known to any person not a known member of this brotherhood that you are a member yourself, or who are members; and that you will never assist in initiating, or allow to be initiated, if you can prevent it, any one belonging to the Red String Order, Union League, Heroes of America, Grand Army of the Republic, or any one holding radical views or opinions. And should any member of this brotherhood, or their families, be in danger, you will inform them of their danger, and, if necessary, you will go to their assistance; and that you will oppose all Radicals and negroes in all of their political designs; and that should any Radical or negro impose on, abuse, or injure any member of this brotherhood, you will assist in punishing him in any manner the camp may direct.

"You further swear that you will obey all calls and summonses of the chief of your camp or brotherhood, should it be in your power so to do.

"Given upon this, your obligation, that you will never give the word of distress unless you are in great need of assistance; and should you hear it given by any brother, you will go to his or their assistance; and should any member reveal any of the secrets, acts, or edicts of the brotherhood you will assist in punishing him in any way the camp may direct or approve of. So help you God!"

Mr. Sherman then proceeded to recount a great number of authenticated instances of crimes committed by the Ku Klux, after which he said:

Before I consider the question whether these crimes are punished or not, let us see how far this organization extends over other States; and here, as we have no sworn testimony, and as I desire to state nothing but what is fortified by evidence that every member of the Senate will believe, I ask the Secretary to read an extract from a recent number of the Charleston (South Carolina) News, a Democratic paper, in regard to the condition of affairs in South Carolina and this class of outrages; and I shall read no paper except such as has the sanction of Democratic authority:

In common with the great mass of the law abiding people of South Carolina, we deeply deplore the murderous outrages which have been committed in Union county by the so-called Ku Klux Klan. These outlaws, there is good reason to believe, are chiefly from Georgia and North Carolina, but some of them are Union county men. They have made themselves the judge and jury. They gave the miserable prisoners no opportunity of saying a word in their defense. It may be that the action of the marauders was precipitated by the rumor that the prisoners in jail were about to be removed to Columbia, where they might hope for a partial trial and a speedy acquittal. This, however, is no excuse for the dastardly crime of their self constituted executioner.

There is no justification whatever for the downright murders in Union county committed by the disguised desperadoes who call themselves Ku Klux. They are neither more nor less than murderers, and hus demanded that they be brought at once to the bar of justice, or scourged beyond the limits of the State.

The Abbeville (South Carolina) Press, Democratic, recently said, in speaking of the doings of the Ku Klux in that State:

All good citizens must unite in denouncing them as evil, and only evil, as increasing tenfold the troubles they seek to remedy. They are neither to be justified, excused nor palliated. They are alike lawless, unauthorised and impolitic. Lawless they are, because they transgress the highest obligations which we owe to God and man; unauthorized, because they involve, without their consent, a whole community in the bitter consequences of the act of a reckless few; impolitic, because they inaugurate a reign of violence which is destructive of every interest of society.

Better the veriest despotism which ever crushed out the spirit of a free people than this lawless anarchy, which makes the lives and property of the citizen the sport of every reckless marauder. Between such a state of things and the military, we choose the latter. Sooner than this, let the State be remanded to the territorial condition, or governed as a conquered province by the strong arm of military law.

The Shelby county (Alabama) Guide, a Democratic paper, recently said:

The latest Ku Klux outrages are of a horrible character, and were perpetrated upon the persons of two negroes in Jackson county, in this State. The battle cry of the Democracy in the late canvass was "law and order," and against the "fools and thieves" in power. Governor Lindsey has been installed in his office now nearly two months, within which time a number of these cold-blooded murders have been committed, and all the victims, except perhaps one, were negroes; yet not in one single instance, except the murder of the white man, Amos G. Harris, in the city of Montgomery, right under the nose of the Governor, has there been a single reward offered by His Excellency for the perpetrators of these diabolical deeds.

Mr. Sherman. I will add, in order not to weaken the force of my testimony, what a Senator of the United States here on the floor of the Senate, stated had occurred at a public meeting in a town in Alabama, while he was present canvassing the State as a candidate for re-election to this body. It is testimony that everybody will read.

The Chief Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Warner. * * * * "In a moment afterward some of the young men who were in the Clerk's office began firing their pistols without any provocation whatever. First they fired a few shots over the audience, who at once turned and ran. Then they began firing into the crowd from the windows of the Court House, from the hall door, from the Court House yard on the right, and formed a pretty good line within my sight, and fired upon the fleeing crowd of colored men as though they had been a gang of wolves and hyenas. They stood there emptying their pistols into the backs of these people as they fled in a great crowd, breaking down the Court House fence in their flight, not a shot being fired, but each man being intent upon saving his life.

Mr. Morton. How many were struck?

Mr. Warner. We know of fifty-four colored men who were shot during that affair, of whom we have information that four have died. How many more were wounded and how many more have since died I do not know. The people fled and went to their homes as fast as they could go, and it was only as we have gathered up the facts incidentally that we can know how many men were wounded or have since died of their wounds.

Mr. Sherman. I have no desire to thrust myself into a political discussion, although this question does necessarily connect itself somewhat with political topics. My own conviction is that, but for the political organization to which I belong and the power it holds by virtue of the popular will, the negroes in the South would soon be reduced to very much the condition they were in before the war and no loyal man could live in safety in the South. I am willing to hear this subject discussed and to fairly consider any proposition the Judiciary Committee can make, and I will not prejudge their conclusions in advance.

But I say the Senate ought not to adjourn without recording its conclusion upon the testimony now laid upon our tables. There it is. More testimony may be required for a broader view; and yet, while this testimony is here we ought not to separate until we have done what we can to put down the violence thus disclosed. In the name of civilization, outraged by these crimes; in the name of Republican government, disgraced by them; in the name of four millions of negroes emancipated by your laws; in the name of all the soldiers, living or dead, who fought to preserve your country, I invoke the full exercise of all powers of the Government to punish these atrocities, to restore to their old prestige and power the laws of the land and the Courts of justice, and to secure to all our citizens, white or black, wherever they may be, the protection of life and property.

OREGON.

Warren Cranston of Marion county, will make 20,000 pounds of cheese this year.

An Indian mechanic at Warm Springs has made seventeen sets of harness for use on the Reservation.

The Roseburg Plaindealer says: During the week 5,924.22 acres of the University Lands of the old selections, have been listed clear of conflict at the Roseburg Land Office. Two hundred acres were selected in order to make up the whole amount due the State by act of Congress admitting Oregon into the Union. These lists will be forwarded to the General Land Office in a few days for approval. There were, last month, 40,040.77 acres of these same lands approved at the Oregon City Office, making a total of 46,165 46 acres, or 85 46 more than 72 sections, the amount of the grant, but as there will doubtless be some of them not approved at Washington, it is thought that the lists will tally with the amount of the grant.

From the Jacksonville Times: Senator Fay, at the solicitation of friends, has withdrawn his letter in reply to Ralls. This we believe to be eminently proper. Notwithstanding the disinclination which Ralls professes, the case will be bound to undergo an investigation before the Grand Jury. A further newspaper war can accomplish no good. Assertions on the one side, supported by ex parte affidavits, and denials upon the other, even supported by other ex parte affidavits, neither prove nor disprove anything. The courts are the proper tribunals to investigate such affairs. And if Mr. Ralls is fearful that a jury, in a county where he has lived for fifteen years, will fail to do him justice, he can take a change of venue.

From the Statesman: The last Legislature made a small appropriation to aid in sustaining a school in this place for the education of deaf mutes. Prof. Smith, who has taken this school in hand, is himself a deaf mute, and works with great energy. He has rented the old Salem House, beyond the woolen factory, where he keeps his school and boards his pupils. There are now eleven pupils in the school of different ages, from ten to twenty-five. Several of these have learned to communicate clearly, and all are improving. The modes of instruction are, of course, peculiar, and great patience is required. A friend who spent an hour there yesterday afternoon reports that he was much interested in the exercises, which shows that the pupils are very quick to learn. By beats upon a drum, the mutes, with their backs to the teacher, were made to understand sentences, which they wrote down, the letters being telegraphed by short and long beats, similar to the clicking of the telegraphic instrument. They make great use of the sign language, which is both interesting and amusing to a bystander.

In answer to an article in the New York World denying the constitutionality of Congressional legislation in the right of suffrage, the Buffalo Express says: If the right of citizens of the United States to vote is abridged and denied in a State by the violence of mobs and lawless organizations which the "State" does not suppress, or with which the authorities of the State are in connivance, then that denial and abridgment is by the "State," according to the meaning of the Constitution, just as purely as if the right which the Constitution aims to protect suffered by the operation of a law written in the statutes of the State.

The Pittsburg Gazette says: No one can converse with President Grant for half an hour and not be convinced that he has an intelligent comprehension of all the duties pertaining to his office and the great matters which affect the weal of the country. If any one is skeptical on this subject let him seek an interview, and unless he is blinded with partisanship, and his intellect has been rendered obtuse by prejudice and disappointment he will admit the truth of what we say.

"Sir," said a fierce lawyer, "do you on your solemn oath declare this is not your hand writing?" "I reckon not was the cool reply. "Does it resemble your hand writing?" "Yes, sir; I think it don't." "Do you swear that it don't resemble your hand writing?" "Well, I do, old head." "You take your solemn oath that this writing does not resemble yours a single letter?" "Y-e-s, sir." "Now, how do you know?" "Cause I can't write."

LONDON, April 12, 5 A. M.—The Times' Paris special says a report was widely spread last night that Montrouge had been taken.

A great offensive movement by the Versailles troops is expected to take place to-day.

The Assembly has adopted a resolution expressing regret that it was not enabled to assist at the funeral of Generals killed by the insurgents.

Preparation for an Attack.

NEW YORK, April 12.—A special correspondent telegraphs from Paris yesterday, that on Monday night five gunboats at Pont de la Concorde got up steam and went into action. There was heavy firing; result unknown.

Yesterday afternoon at 6 o'clock, firing from the forts was furiously resumed.

Versailles troops are accused of using explosive bullets, some being found in Fort Vanores.

At Fort Issy it was discovered that the bolts on the gates were drawn or broken, proving the existence of treason among the National Guards.

The Prussians at St. Denis have been reinforced with 5,000 men. They will, however, respect the treaty of Versailles.

Last night, a correspondent telegraphed from Versailles that to-night a blow is to be struck, which the authorities hope will restore Paris to its lawful government.

Spies of the Government now in Paris have arranged the following programme:

Eighteen thousand loyal Nationals in Paris ... stationed. At a fixed hour ... Hotel de Ville, 6,000 Montmartre ... Belleville. At the same moment, ... Porte Maillot will be made ... an effort will be made to get ... Laziere station. A large reserve ... Gen. Valliar will take supreme ... Corps du Marine. The authorities are sanguine of success. The soldiers and ... the leading attacking column. 12,000 men of the old Imperial Guard will be ready ... at a moment's notice. If successful, 12,000 more of the same Guard will be ready in ten days.

Eighty thousand men are now at Versailles.

Yesterday afternoon the Insurgents unsuccessfully attempted to draw the Versailles troops into a trap at Asnieres.

Heavy Fighting.

PARIS, April 12, via London, April 10, 5 P. M.—A loud and uninterrupted cannonade has been kept up since last evening between Chatillon and the southern forts. The infantry is also engaged. The noise of mitrailleuses and musketry has been incessant. Since five o'clock this morning the cannonading around Neuilly, Porte Maillot and Porte Des Ternes has been resumed and is as violent as that of the south. Fighting is now going on in Bois de Boulogne and at Asnieres. The Commune is forwarding reinforcements to the troops engaged. Wounded are arriving in large numbers. The losses are heavy.

Official reports to the Commune claim that the Versailles forces were repulsed Tuesday evening in an attack on the southern forts, and that their loss was heavy, while that of the Communists was very slight. The Commune believes the attack was intended as an attempt to carry Maillot gate by surprise. A rumor comes from the southern part of the city that the Communists have lost part of d'Issy, where they were entrenched, and that the commandant of Fort d'Issy has been shot by his own men.

WASHINGTON CITY.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—It is expected that a large immigration to the United States will take place during the coming summer from the French population of Alsace and that portion of Lorraine annexed to Germany. Letters received by French residents of Washington from these provinces, state that the desire to emigrate is strong, not only among the poor but among the middle classes, who possess small properties in towns and country districts. With a view of encouraging this movement, a number of French gentlemen living in New York and Washington are endeavoring to form organizations to raise capital to buy large tracts of land and settle upon them agricultural and manufacturing colonies of their country people. Their attention is chiefly directed to East Tennessee, Northern Georgia and Alabama.

The Senate has confirmed E. M. Roberon as Indian Agent of Washington Territory.

CALIFORNIA.

Sandwich Islands and Australia.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 13.—The steamer Ajax arrived from Honolulu, with Australian and New Zealand mails, and passengers as follows: from Honolulu 38; from Australia and New Zealand 82

There is an increased yield of gold in Thames District, New Zealand.

A French war steamer had captured a German bark, a new brig and a schooner, and took them to Tahiti. The bark was loaded with grain from San Francisco and was captured off the coast of Chile

Several railways are commenced in parts of the colony.

An eight hour bill had passed to a final reading in the New South Wales Parliament by a close vote.

The Australian gold fields are yielding well.

Business at Sydney is extremely dull.

CURRENT NOTES.

A London letter to the Tribune says it is an odd circumstance that the English seem almost as nervous about the effect of American hospitalities on their Commissioners as they say we were about Mr. Reverdy Johnson. But the writer thinks they would be less concerned if they knew what bad dinners the Washington hotels are capable of giving.

The Washington Republican says that since the advent of Secretary Belknap in the War Department there has been a very material reduction in the number of officers on duty in that city. The appearance of brass buttons about the Capital had, it is said, a very irritating effect on the Secretary of War, and hence the reason for diminishing an unnecessary force there and increasing it where it was more needed.

A bill has been introduced into Congress to prohibit the indiscriminate and wanton destruction of buffalo on the public lands. The bill is said to be based upon the fact that in passing over the Kansas Pacific Railroad last winter, the train was snowed in, and for ten days the only food of about one hundred passengers was buffalo meat, and had this not been at hand they must all have starved.

FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 15, 1871.

Press Comments on Sumner's Speech.

Of Senator Sumner's recent tirade of abuse against President Grant, the Washington correspondent of the New York Times writes: "It was significant that as Mr. Sumner sat down from his work not a Senator congratulated him on his speech. Not even Mr. Schurz, who sat next to him all the afternoon, offered him his hand upon the completion of his work. Seldom has such an audience been been gathered to hear a great effort, and never before has the great effort been only such a mass of hollow sound as not to secure a single congratulatory response from a single brother Senator." The Times, always careful, moderate and judicious in its statements, says editorially that "the facts adduced by Mr. Sumner scarcely warrant the conclusions he draws from them, and utterly fail in establishing the absurd charge of 'usurpation' against President Grant."

The Washington Chronicle, which has sympathized with Sumner, confesses that the great expectations which were entertained in regard to his speech did not meet with fulfillment. "It was promised," says the Chronicle, "that this speech should establish beyond question most unwelcome proof that the San Domingo scheme was a corrupt job in which the President was involved; that in the obstinate and reckless pursuit of this object the money of the people had been wildly squandered; that the naval forces of the United States had been arbitrarily employed to force [illegible] unwilling people to an abhorrent consent; [illegible] ernational law, simple equity and [illegible] decency had been ruthlessly violated [illegible] the flag had been degraded and [illegible] nation disgraced by outrageous abuse of [illegible] authority. Few who listened, we [illegible] will hesitate to render the verdict, [illegible] proven.'"

[illegible] New York Tribune speaks coldly of the [illegible] judges that Mr. Sumner "has [illegible] it before instead of after the [illegible] report of the Commissioners." [illegible] that he cannot possibly stand [illegible] with any portion of the country than [illegible] Commissioners who have visited San Domingo and who are in favor of annexation, [illegible] the unbiased truth may be expected [illegible] them, because they are men whom the whole country know and trust, and [illegible] Mr. Sumner supposed he could gain [illegible] advantage by forestalling them, he has [illegible]."

Tone of the Southern Press.

The state of "Democratic" feeling at the [illegible] as represented by the press of that party in that section, is extremely suggestive. We have heretofore given some extracts from those sources. For those who hope for peace and who want no further commotions in the country, it may be interesting to read some more of them.

The San Antonio (Texas) Herald thinks the Southern Democratic Press has no higher mission than to show that the North was alone responsible for the late destructive war; and the Galveston News believing that the people of the South do not wish to discuss the constitutionality of what has been done, says that they prefer to go back to the root, and will, sooner or later, ask for a Constitutional Convention to undo it all.

One of the leading Democratic papers of Alabama, the Montgomery Advertiser, declares that the war made by the Republican party of the United States against the Confederate States is the darkest scandal in modern history. But it takes courage and says: "It seems to us as if the Great Conspiracy planned in 1860, and consummated in 1800 was about being exposed to the eyes and intelligent comprehension of the Northern m[illegible], and that the popular vengeance might yet fall upon the traitors."

The Savannah Republican asserts that "the late war waged upon the Southern States was a crime against both principle and policy;" that "the South cannot be warred upon with impunity," and that further legislation by Congress, such as proposed, will "make twenty Ku-Klux where there is now one."

The Richmond Enquirer, referring to a recent statement of "State rights" doctrines by a Northern paper, says: "Here is a recognition, and a kindly one, of so much of the States rights as the people at large of the Union are at present prepared to claim. More will be claimed at a fitting time, and at length the excrescences which have grown up under the abnormal stimulus of war, will one by one be pared away, until the Constitution in its original simplicity is reached."

These extracts show what the ex-rebels are contending for. Are the men who maintained the Union and enacted the constitutional amendments as measures of peace and safety, willing to see their work pulled down?

Wheat Prospects.

We have information from persons who arrived from California by last steamer, corroborating newspaper reports from that State, to the effect that short grain crops there, the present season, are inevitable. The wheat-growing districts in the Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys are parched with drought, and one gentleman who has taken a good deal of pains to learn by personal observation and inquiry the crop prospects there, informs us that he is satisfied that not more than one-half an average yield will be secured. It is now getting too late for rain to do much good to the parched fields, even if it should fall. Hence it is now certain that the present year's crop in California will be a partial failure. In this the farmers of Oregon may now find their opportunity. They are having a favorable spring, and should sow every acre of ground they can. Our harvests never fail,—if we don't forget the seed time. As a consequence of the drought in California many people are looking toward Oregon, and we may expect a large accession to our population from those who are dissatisfied with the uncertainties of California's climate.

A recent dispatch from New York states that the latest news from the Darien expedition represents that a newly discovered route has been found which is but twenty-two miles in length, and that the deepest cut required will be less than one hundred and fifty feet and, perhaps, but seventy-five or one hundred feet deep. The Isthmus is about forty miles wide, but several of the rivers are navigable for several miles from the ocean.

According to the report of Lieut Boyle, Indian Agent at Umatilla, the number of Indians on that Reservation last July was 837. The number belonging to the Reservation, but temporarily absent, was 785. Total number, 1,622. The lands in cultivation on the Reservation last year amounted to 900 acres. The yield was estimated as follows: Wheat, 12,000 bushels; oats, 3,000 bushels; potatoes, 7,000 bushels; corn, 1,500 bushels. The yield of vegetables was also considerable. The number of horses belonging to the Umatilla Indians was estimated by Lieut. Boyle at 10,000.

Coming Right to the Point.

The advance sheets of Old and New for April contain a letter from Washington in which there is a valuable contribution to the controversy over Sumner's recent removal. The letter is evidently written by some one who is extremely partial to Mr. Sumner, but who sees the exact points at issue in the discussion as to the removal of the late Chairman of the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations. We therefore extract from this letter the following:

It is a mistake to speak of the change in the Foreign Relations Committee as a personal insult to Mr. Sumner. No experience of his life has shown so distinctly the weight and dignity of the position he has made, and the respect paid to his character and acquisitions.

The truth is, that Mr. Sumner has made the chairmanship of the Foreign Relations Committee a new office. The Chairman has become another Secretary of State—as the English would say, a "Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs." Till he was Chairman the post was never thus regarded. After he was Chairman, and during Mr. Seward's dynasty, the country had two Secretaries of State.

* * * * * *

The country sees, of course, that General Grant's true solution of the difficulty would have been to make Sumner Secretary of State at the beginning. When he determined not to do this, all that has happened in the last week really followed, of course, and has probably been foreseen by all the principal parties. Had Mr. Sumner been an old fashioned Chairman it would not have happened. Being the man in the country most familiar with our foreign relations, and of most decided views regarding them, it was evident that he must be in the administration or out of it. He could not occupy long the neutral position.

This is what is meant when it is said that Mr. Sumner is himself answerable for the change now made.

Ex-Congressman Stewart of Pennsylvania, who sat in the House of Representatives in 1824, is the oldest man living who ever sat in that body. In a recent letter on the political situation he states some plain truths in a very forcible manner. He says: "In 1872 there will be but two candidates, Grant and some Democrat, Jeff Davis, perhaps, if the Southern wing of the Democratic party, as heretofore, should prove the strongest, or some Northern Buchanan Democrat bound hand and foot will answer their purpose as well if not better, and then the disaffected Republicans can go with Grant or for the Democratic nominee, rebels, Ku Klux and all. To this complexion it must come at last and politicians must make up their minds to meet the emergency."

We cannot see why it is that Democratic journals and Congressmen are opposed so bitterly to any investigation being made of the outrages in the South, if they are caused entirely by the Republicans. If they believe what they say they should certainly lend all the aid in their power to have just punishment meted out to those who are guilty of such villainous deeds. Republicans court investigation. Democrats oppose it. What is the inference?

Progress Toward Resumption.

An interesting and elaborate article on this subject is given in a recent number of the Boston Advertiser. The writer shows by figures and by substantial arguments that progress is making towards resumption of gold payments. During the war our exports fell to two hundred and thirteen millions, and we have been obliged to send out many bonds to meet the emergency. We did so after the revolution and after the war of 1812, but met them at maturity, and in the interval between the shipment and the payment used the capital thus borrowed to revive our industy and commerce. We have used the capital which we have thus recently borrowed for the last two years in building twelve thousand miles of railway, costing more than five hundred millions. These have proved a valuable acquisition, for they have added at least an equal amount to the value of our lands, are aiding our commerce and will facilitate the payment of our debt to Europe. Our exports are still progressive, Their growth, when compared with that of our imports, proves that we have no occasion in future to ship to Europe any large amount of our bonds, and that we are fast improving our situation. The following tabular statement shows the growth of our commerce during the three last calendar years. In this table the exports of foreign goods are deducted from the imports, thus giving the actual consumption:

	Imports.	Exports.
For 1868	$361,000,000	$442,000,000
For 1869	444,000,000	465,000,000
For 1870	456,000,000	508,000,000

In the above table the imports are given in gold values, the exports partly in gold and partly in currency, as recorded in our custom houses, and down to 1870, while gold was thirty or thirty-five per cent. above currency, the gold value of our imports greatly exceeded the gold value of our exports; but during the past year there has been not only a gain of forty-three millions of dollars in the exports, while the imports have gained but twelve million, but there has been also a further gain of sixty millions of dollars in the gold value of our exports by the fall of gold. A gain of more than one hundred millions in the effective power of our exports in a single year throws a golden light upon the future.

The gold value of our exports for the past year is 451 millions in place of 213 millions of dollars, the amount of our exports in gold and paper values a few years since. The above figures are taken from the official returns of the bureau of statistics, except those for the single month of December, the returns for which we are enabled closely to approximate from official returns. But it may be urged in reply that we have shipped specie to Europe and have interest and expenses of travelers to pay abroad, some undervaluations in the custom house, some freights of ships to meet, some losses by smuggling. Granted. But the specie shipped has been nearly or quite counterbalanced by imports through the custom house and by emigrants, while we have accumulated some 65 millions in specie, plate and jewelry, but chiefly in coin, which circulates in the Pacific States and Territories.

As respects interest less than half of our national bonds are held abroad, and half the whole interest which we pay is but 57 millions. We pay less than 56 millions on our national debt abroad, and less than 15 millions on other debts and stocks abroad. With the exception of our national bonds and a few State bonds in Europe, the securities held there draw but little interest. They are chiefly Erie, Atlantic and Great Western and Illinois Central, two of which pay no interest. If all the interest we pay abroad is less than 65 millions, it is not by our annual accumulation of gold at home. As respects freights, since March last nearly two-fifths of our exports and imports have been carried in American bottoms, and the deficiency is in great part filled by the earnings of our ships running between the Orient and Europe, or is paid by foreigners on receipt of our outward cargoes. The effects of under valuation are reduced by the large proportion of specific duties, and smuggling declines under the reduction of excessive duties on spices, cigars and spirits; while our expenditures abroad are set by many bankers below 10 millions a year, for most of our travellers who cross the ocean are either second-class passengers going out to bring over friends or students and children.

For 1870 we represent the bonds we have sent to Europe by more than 50 millions in gold, to say nothing of 225 millions invested in railroads, and the attendant rise of land. Notwithstanding the fall of cotton, we are still gaining largely in our exports. If we gain in their value this year half as much as we did last year, we may recall bonds from Europe.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 13.—Wind, west. The bark Voyager is now coming in from the Mexican coast.

The Board of Health, after all that has been said and done in regard to Quarantine Officer Rogers, reported to-day that his accounts were found to be in such a confused condition that they required an investigation by experts, and accordingly they directed such an examination be made.

This morning Mrs. Ann Meagher was arrested on Market street, on a charge of assault with intent to commit murder, having fired at her husband with a pistol, but missed him. She applied for a divorce the other day: last night he came to the room, and this morning they had some difficulty and she shot at him.

Snyder, late husband of Mrs. Fair, testified for the prosecution to day, and gave the particulars alleged in putting up a case for divorce from him. The defense then put Mrs. Fair on the stand to rebut his evidence; she swore that no such plot was ever laid, and furthermore that he came to her cell, after her arrest, and offered to testify in such a manner as to clear her, if she would pay him $5,000, which she refused to do, hence the testimony against her. Cook, her counsel, then testified, substantially corroborating her testimony in this particular. The evidence on both sides was then declared closed. Judge Dwinelle then adjourned court until to-morrow morning, when the arguments of counsel will commence.

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES.

GRASS VALLEY, April 13.—The Democrats of Grass Valley met last night at the Town Hall to nominate candidates for town officers. The meeting proceeded to ballot for nominees, with this result: J. A. Farrell, Patrick English and Wm. H. Benton for Trustees; J. F. Nesmith, Treasurer; Wm. H. Montgomery, Marshal; John Webber, Assessor. The meeting also elected John C. Dennell, Sam. P. Dorsey and J. A. Farrell as Democratic Executive Committee of the town.

John Thomas, a miner in the Idaho Mine, was badly hurt by being caught under a mass of stones and dirt which fell from the roof of the second level of the new shaft. He is thought to be internally injured.

Yesterday while George Williams and Henry Snadden were riding out together in a buggy they were stopped by a foot-pad and robbed of seven dollars and fifty cents. The robber stated that he ought to shoot both of them, as they had hired Chinamen, and he had been ruined by Chinese cheap labor. The robber was not masked.

Township Gravel Mining Company struck gravel yesterday afternoon. $170 were taken from one pan of dirt.

AMUSEMENTS.

RED MEN'S BALL.—Multnomah Tribe No 3 Improved Order of Red Men will give their first annual ball at Washington Guard Armory, on Thursday evening, April 27th. The following gentlemen compose the committee of arrangements: Chas S. Mills, E. J Jeffrey, Alex Campbell, C. M. Martin, Ward S Stevens, Rob't E. Bybee, Wm White and James F Hawkins. Tickets, $2 50 each, to be obtained of the committee. It is intended to make this ball one of the best of the season.

MRS BATES' BENEFIT.—This evening Mrs Bates takes her farewell benefit. The "Actress of Padua," a drama of love, intrigue and tragedy, will be produced for the first time in this city, Mrs Bates in the great character of Thisbe, the actress, Mr Wilson as Angelo, and Mr Bates as Rodolfo—three characters who are at cross purposes. These will be supported by a strong cast of the whole company. There will be an interlude of song and dance, and the entertainment will close with the splendid and very laughable farce of Bamboozling. The bill alone ought to attract a full house, independent of the fact that the occasion is Mrs Bates' last benefit in Portland.

ORO FINO THEATER.—The dramatic company gave a 2nd rendition last evening of the tragedy of "Lucretia Borgia," with the same excellent cast as before, except that Mr Graves personated Maffio Orsini instead of Miss Cummings, who is ill. To-night will be produced the tragedy of "The Actress of Padua," for the benefit of Mrs Bates, and after the drama an excellent farce.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

MERCANTILE HOUSE AT KALAMA.—The attention of our readers is asked to the advertisement of Ingalls & Sohns, wholesale and retail dealers at Kalama. The firm gives excellent references in this city and San Francisco. We know Capt. Ingalls, personally, and can cheerfully and heartily commend him to any who may have or wish to have dealings at Kalama, as a reliable business man.

BUSINESS NOTICE.—Real estate in Couch's Addition is considered the most choice property in this city. Buyers will find a large amount to select from in this division by calling on Dean & Brothers, 92 Front street.

INTERESTING TO THE LADIES.—A look through the stock of Clark, Henderson & Cook will convince any one that they have selected the same with a view to please the most fastidious. Having secured the sole agency for the sale of American silks, they are enabled to offer superior inducements in this class of goods. Give them a call.

The California Campaign.

[From the Marysville Appeal.]

The Democrats are becoming alarmed at the prospects in this State, and several of their papers are pointing out the danger and urging the organization of a vigorous campaign. They are in error, however, in attributing the growing strength of the Republican party, to dissensions in the Democratic ranks. The causes are more important, and give signs of a healthy re-organization with permanent strength. A large number of those who have for the past year voted with the Democracy, have become tired and disgusted with the alliance. They were never in entire harmony with their new friends, but have always felt a longing desire to return to their "first love." They have discovered how utterly shallow and false-hearted is Democracy, how ready to make pledges, how profuse in promises, and how equally ready to break them. Every pledge made by the Democratic party in California has been broken, every principle of its faith as expressed in its platform has been violated. It is to these indications of dishonesty that is due the confusion in the Democratic ranks, and in the influx of deserters coming into the Republican camp. The Democracy rode into power upon hobbies that appealed to the prejudices and passions of the ignorant, and, having secured the State Administration and Legislature, proceeded deliberately to break every one of its pledges, and while inveighing against monopolies to throw itself completely into the arms of the greatest monopoly on the Pacific coast. It has no Fifteenth Amendment this time, it has destroyed its own Chinese goose that laid the anti-coolie egg, it cannot claim to be the especial "friend of the working man" it has betrayed, and the subsidy issue is the only thing left it for a hobby. Governor Haight saw this clearly when he undertook to put the Democratic party on the anti-railroad track. The people, while they listen to all of the stuff and nonsense that Haight and his followers utter, remember the course of the last Legislature, and also that nearly every one of Haight's official acts belie his professions. They have seen a Democratic Legislature plunder the treasury, and feel the weight of the immense increase of public officers by this Democratic administration to live upon the people, without any equivalent of necessary or valuable services in return. The whole course of the present State administration has been dishonest, its Legislature had no precedent in corruption, it has squandered the moneys to keep up an army of manipulating retainers, and in short, has been almost everything that is shameless and corrupt. And these are the reasons why the Democratic party will be defeated in the next campaign, and not because of any internal dissensions. Let them unite with one accord, and enter the canvass in perfect harmony, the result will be the same, for the people see through the hollowness of their pretensions and cannot be again deceived by them.

CATCHING AN EXPRESS TRAIN.—Dan Rice the showman, arrived in Columbus, Ohio, on an 11 A. M. train the other day, from Indianapolis. He wanted to go to Girard, but the Cleveland train had just gone. The noble Daniel, says the State Journal, was much provoked, but concluded to keep cool as the circumstances would permit, and that he might the better do this, came up town. He went to the depot again in good time for the 4 P. M. train, but in his anxiety to avoid impatience and excitement, read a newspaper in a sitting room until just half a minute after the train steamed out of the depot for Cleveland. He made a tremendous effort to reach the out-going train, but even Dan Rice is a slow coach in such a race, and he failed. He danced about like one of his famous trained horses for a brief period, and then made a proposition to the effect that he would pay $100 to catch the train. Thomas Welsh, in charge of an engine in the yard, accepted the proposition, and Rice jumped on board, the locomotive was put to its full speed in pursuit of the Cleveland train. There were no cars attached and the train was overtaken at Lewis Center, sixteen miles from Columbus, in just sixteen minutes from the time of starting. The ride was not an unpleasant one, and the veteran showman rather enjoyed the mad gallop of the iron horse. When he reached the train, he proceeded to settle accounts, when the engineer said half the amount would do, and $50 was paid over, the "mile-a-minute" man returning more leisurely to this city, leaving Dan Rice to pursue his journey to Girard on the regular train.

The Purest and Safest.

The efficacy of Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters as a specific for recruiting the enfeebled body and cheering the desponding mind has passed into a proverb. In the United States this marvellous tonic, has borne down all opposition and eclipsed all rivalry, the demand for it has annually increased in a heavier and heavier ratio for years, until, at last the regular sales of this preparation exceed those of all other stomachics combined. Eminent members of the medical profession and hospital surgeons without number, have candidly admitted that the pharmacopoeia of the faculty contains no prescription that produces such beneficial effects in dyspepsia general debility and nervous diseases, as Hostetter's Bitters. To use the language of a venerable physician of New York, "The Bitters are the purest stimulant and the safest tonic we have." But the uses of the great vegetable antidote are much more comprehensive than such praise would imply. As a preparatory antidote to epidemic disease, a genial stimulant, a promoter of constitutional vigor, an appetizer, a stomachic, and a remedy for nervous debility, no medicinal preparation has ever attained the reputation of Hostetter's Bitters. It is the household tonic of the American people, and in all human probability will be for centuries to come. The magnates of science recognize its merits, and that it is emphatically the medicine of the masses, is proven by its vast and ever increasing sales

GENERALITIES.

Two Irishmen were traveling, when they stopped to examine a guide-board. "Twelve miles to Bangor," said one. "Just six miles apiece," said the other, and they trudged on, apparently satisfied with the short distance.

"Shall I help you to alight?" said a young gentleman addressing a bouncing country girl, who was preparing to jump from a carriage in front of his office. "Thank you, sir," sweetly replied the girl, "but I don't smoke."

Nick's stout landlady apologized for the meagerness of her breakfast by saying that when her butcher failed her she always fell back on her ham. "Madame," said Nick, consolingly, "you could not fall back on anything more substantial."

"Fellow travelers," said a "culled" preacher, "ef I had been eatin' dried apples for a week, and den took to drinkin' for a monf, I couldn't feel more swelled up dan I am at dis minit wid pride and wanity at seein' such full 'tendance here dis evenin'."

A lawyer in Connecticut, not remarkable for cleanliness of person, appeared at a party with a rose in his button hole. "Where do you suppose it come from?" asked he of a brother lawyer who was admiring it. The latter, with great deliberation, responded: "Why, I suppose it grew there."

A pedant coming upon a youthful angler sitting on the bank of a stream, thus addressed him: "Adolescence, art thou not endeavoring to entice the finny tribe to engulf into their denticulated mouths a barbed hook, upon whose point is affixed a dainty allurement?" "No," said the boy, "I'm fishin'."

A Paris correspondent writing of the siege, says: "They tell of one lady here who was so overcome by her appetite as to eat her beloved lap-dog. After a hearty meal, she looked down at the little heap of bones; tears fell from her eyes. "Poor Bijou!" she exclaimed, "how he would have enjoyed them."

Fletcher, Bishop of Nismes, was the son of a tallow-chandler. A proud duke once endeavored to mortify the priest by saying at the levee that he smelt tallow; to which the other replied: "My lord, I am the son of a tallow-chandler, 'tis true, and if your lordship had been the same, you would have remained a tallow-chandler all the days of your life."

At a recent circuit of the Supreme Court of Illinois, a question arose on the construction of the pleadings. The counsel read their respective pleadings through to the Judge, and argued. Then the Judge took the pleadings and read them through to himself. At the conclusion, he handed the papers to the counsel, and with an experience of utter perplexity said: "I think, under the present system of pleading, there is no safety unless counsel come into the court with the code under their arm." One of the counsel quickly jumped up and replied: "Don't you think, your honor, it would be better to bring it in their head?"

What Greeley Knows about Endorsing.—The Quincy Whig of March 21, says:

"A few days ago Mr. and Mrs. Ansel Warren, of this city, celebrated her golden wedding,—they having been united in marriage in Hebron, N. Y., on March, 1821. Mr. Warren is one of the oldest newspaper publishers in the State, though he has not been actively engaged in the business for many years. Among other letters of congratulation upon this happy event, Mr. Warren received one from the 'Philosopher' of the New York 'Tribune, who was a beginner in his office at Poultney, Vt. We have been kindly permitted to make the following extract therefrom:

"New York, March 8, 1871.

"My Old Friend:—I have a letter from an acquaintance of yours, who says he helped celebrate your golden wedding. (I apprehend that the gold was somehow dropped out the programme.) I can hardly realize that you were married fifty years ago; but I remember that it is forty-five years (lacking two months) since I went to Poultney to learn printing, and I look at my snowy locks and consider that we have a great many years behind us, and probably few of this life before us. So I thought I would write you a line for old acquaintance sake. * * *

"I am poor, but it is my own fault; because I endorse other people's notes. One was brought me to-day for $5,000, which I must find a way to pay within a few days. I have fooled away $150,000 in trying to help others, and it has done no good. Now I guess my foot is down that I will not endorse another note. So you see the stables all get locked after the horses are stolen. Let me hope that you and Mrs. Warren are well."

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

Portland, Thursday, April 13, 1871.

Gold at New York, 110¾.

Currency quotable at 90½c buying; and 91½c selling.

Exchange—On San Francisco, ½ per cent.; on New York, 1½ per cent.; telegraphic transfers, 1½ per cent.

Interest on 30 to 90 day loans, 1 per cent; outside rates are 1@2 per cent.

There is brisk inquiry for money for real estate investments, though the demand is not strong enough to affect the rates of interest. For the last week there have been occasional complaints of scarcity, but there is no general or serious stringency in the market.

In commercial circles there is an increasing activity in all departments of trade. Wholesale dealers are turning out large orders of goods for nearly every part of the interior, and everything looks promising for continued prosperity in mercantile affairs. Quotations rule steady, scarcely a figure being disturbed in our tables from last week's report.

The Produce market is more animated than it has been heretofore. The surplus wheat of California has unquestionably been pretty well disposed of, while the crop prospects for this year are not everywhere favorable. These facts having become established upon good evidence, an advance of 50c per barrel has taken place in the price of flour in this market. Advances have taken place during the week in the quotations at San Francisco and at Liverpool. Wheat is firm in this market at an advance to $1 30 per bushel for good white shipping grades.

Provisions, in general, are in good demand and firm at our quotations. The supply of bacon has augmented a little during the week, but the amount on hand is scarcely up to the requirements. Dried apples and dried peaches are scarce and wanted at an advanced figure. Butter is in very full supply, and without much sale, prices declining.

Markets.

[BY TELEGRAPH.]

Wheat—The distillery demand having ceased prices have nominally settled to $2 65@2 70

Cheap Water Pipe.

"THE ASPHALTUM PRESSURE PIPE COMPAny," of San Francisco, having purchased of the patentees the sole right to manufacture on this coast, are now making an article at their works, at Alameda Point, that will supply the general want of a cheap and durable water pipe. The invention originated in France, where these pipes are extensively used, as well as in Germany; in fact, all over Europe, almost entirely superseding for all ordinary purposes the use of iron. It is no new thing, having been in use twenty years.

Its Durability.

Being imperishable and insensible to atmospheric influences or chemical properties of the earth, it never changes, and is consequently much more durable than iron, which corrodes, and in time leaks.

It is a Non-Conductor,

And will not freeze except at a remarkably low temperature, and even then its expansive power is greater than that of frozen water. In warm weather it acts as a cooler for water passing through it.

Neutrality to Acids and Alkalis.

This pipe is not affected by acids and alkalis, nor is it affected by galvanic currents—consequently is invaluable in conducting telegraph wires under ground through tunnels and under bridges.

Elasticity.

The elasticity of this pipe prevents its bursting from outward shocks or concussions. The interior of the pipes being glazed, are as smooth as porcelain and consequently are never clogged by adhering sediment.

Lightness.

The mean weight of these pipes to iron is as one to five, which not only facilitates handling, but reduces the cost of transportation.

Laying the Pipe

Is a simple matter—can be laid by any laboring man of ordinary intelligence; but the Company, if required, will always furnish a competent person, free of expense, to oversee the proper laying of the pipe. Contracts taken for any required length of pipe from water or mining companies, and warranted to stand according to contract.

Pipe Under Pressure

Can be seen at the office of the Company. We are the only parties manufacturing this pipe on the Pacific Coast under this patent. All other offered is spurious and an infringement.

Cheapness.

The cost when laid, including connections, is about one-quarter that of lead and one-half that of iron.

We manufacture this pipe in lengths of twelve feet, and ship it everywhere, by all sorts of conveyance—no special care being required. We manufacture it of any size from one to twelve inches.

Pressure.

We manufacture according to the pressure required from 1 to 600 pounds to the inch, and guarantee it to stand the pressure.

Prices.

1 inch, 10 cents per foot	For pipe capable of resisting a pressure of 150 lbs. to the square inch.
2 inch, 20 " "
3 inch, 30 " "
4 inch, 40 " "
5 inch, 50 " "
6 inch, 60 " "
8 inch, $1 00 "
10 inch, $1 25 "
12 inch, $1 50 "

This pipe being made of a combination of paper, canvas, and asphaltum, in lengths of twelve feet, should not be confounded with moulded asphaltum pipe in lengths of four feet.

LAND DEPARTMENT

OREGON & CALIFORNIA RAILROAD COMPANY.

Salem, Oregon, October 22, 1870.

THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT IS MADE FOR information of all concerned:

First—Congress has granted to the Company all alternate sections of the public lands designated by odd-numbers within a distance of thirty miles on each side of the railroad, excepting lands to which a pre-emption or homestead claim had attached prior to the withdrawal by Government of the lands co-terminous with the first division of located line from East Portland to Jefferson, at 12 M. February 16, 1870. The second division of located line from Jefferson to a point six miles south of Roseburg, May, 1870, and from the last named point to the California line, 1870.

Second—Persons who have valid pre-emption or homestead claims to any tract on an odd numbered section can purchase the same from the Railroad Company at the Government price of $1 25 per acre in greenbacks, and upon very favorable terms, if they so desire, by filing an abandonment of their claim in the U. S. Land Office, blanks for which will be furnished by the Land Agent of the Company. Such purchase from the Company has those advantages over a purchase from the Government: The party can leave the land if necessary; he can sell the land or mortgage it; he is saved the payment of lawyers' or agents' fees, and expenses of witnesses to go to the Land Office to "prove up" his claim; he can get his title perfect in less time, and he can buy on credit also low rate of interest.

Third—No sales will be made by the Company until the land is listed over to it by the United States Land Commissioner and Secretary of the Interior.

Purchasers are thus assured that the titles they obtain is perfect. I. R. MOORES,
